

Manuscript format: Articles submitted to D6 Family Journal must conform to the following guidelines to be considered for publication:

Peer Review Papers

- Word Count: Manuscripts should be between 3,000 to 5,000 words in length, including all references, tables, charts, etc. Manuscripts are to be double-spaced and have 1" margins on all sides.
- Blind review: Manuscript should be prepared for blind review. Since this journal uses a double blind review process, ensure that you remove all identifying information from the submitted manuscript. Ensure that authors' name(s) do not appear in the text or in the reference list. Additionally, omit references to specific institutions.
- Style: The content, organization, and style of manuscripts conform to standards of the current Manual of the American Psychological Association. 12-point Times New Roman Font should be used. Please note that quotes require written permission from the copyright holder before they can be republished. The author is responsible to secure the permission. Generally, it is advised to avoid long quotes.
- Tables, Figures, etc. Graphics and tables should be embedded in the manuscript. Lower quality graphics may be acceptable for review purposes; however, you must submit high quality graphics for publication purposes. In tables, do not use font size smaller than 10-point.
- Original work: Please only submit original works that are not being considered for publication in other periodicals, in press, or previously published.
- File format: Manuscripts need to be submitted in Microsoft Word 97-2003 format (.doc) or Rich Text Format (.rtf). Please ensure that the "track changes" feature is not on.
