

CALL FOR PAPERS

D6 Family Ministry Journal

We would like to take this opportunity to introduce you to the D6 Family Ministry Journal, an academic journal published by Randall House.

The goal of D6 Family Ministry Journal is to create a platform and a resource for students, colleges, universities, and practitioners interested in the academic implications and tools related to family ministry. This journal addresses the current issues related to family ministry and generational discipleship. For additional information, check out our website: <https://d6family.com/d6academic/>

We are currently accepting proposals for the Fourth Edition, which will be published in Spring 2019. Each edition includes academic research articles (3,000-5,000 words), practitioner essays (1,000 words), and book reviews (800 words max.). Each research article will be peer-reviewed, and accepted papers will be included in the print issue.

One special focus for this edition is "Spiritual Formation of Teenagers." Some examples of papers that would fit in this category are:

- The transition from parenting children to teens
- Helping make church a priority for teenagers
- Reaching prodigal teenagers
- Youth Pastor's role in spiritual formation
- The gap between children's and youth ministry
- The gap between youth and adult ministry and why they don't make the leap

Articles, essays, peer-reviews, and practitioner reflections beyond this theme are also welcomed.

Important Dates:

Intent to submit: March 15th, 2018 - June 1st, 2018

Completed paper for review: August 15th, 2018

Final version: November 1st, 2018

Publish date: Spring 2019

Send your topic and abstract to academic@d6family.com by June 1st, 2018. You will be notified of acceptance by June 15th, 2018, and all completed papers must be submitted for peer-review by August 15th, 2018.

If you are interested in participating as a peer reviewer in the double-blind peer-review process for the research articles, email academic@d6family.com
